What have you learnt that will be most useful in your work? “How to run such sessions”. “Aspects of storytelling techniques”. “How to use different story-telling techniques to vary mood and pace in a session. A good insight into how student’s feel in a drama workshop. I also have a clearer understanding of what can be achieved”. “Lots of ideas/resources for the day”. “Lots of excellent ideas for engaging students when storytelling”. “Loads of great ideas”. “Sessions 1 & 3 most useful, as all new to me. Good ideas in session 1 to adapt. Session 3 – learnt a lot – good to have so much participation”. “How to make storytelling FUN and be brave enough to give it a go”. “The whole day has been very useful and great fun. I will certainly be using the ‘murder in the library’ and aspects of the storytelling and Drama”. “I’m going to try a ‘murder in the library’ session”

Any comments on the overall day? “I enjoyed it and learned some stuff that I can re-use”. “Very enjoyable and really different”. Excellent, Venue v. good, food excellent”. “Very interesting and informative”. “Can’t wait to have a go at ‘Murder in the library’”. “Great Fun”.

Any suggestions for future courses/events you would like SLA – Y&H to run? Creative Writing. Web 2.0.
